

ITAA NEWSLETTER
NOVEMBER 2011

A Note from the President

November 6, 2011

Dear Archery Friends,

The weather has turned and it's time to move indoors. I already can't wait for next spring...maybe we'll get one of those perfect "Indian Summer" days to sneak in one more time outdoors yet this fall.

The ITAA continues to work. Thanks to Gabe Querol for putting in many hours to straighten out our tax exempt status and to make sure that all of our items line up with USA Archery guidelines for state organizations.

News about our 2012 shoots...the ITAA JOAD Indoor State Championship has had to change venues. It will be held on the same date, January 21, 2012, but just relocated to Chicago Bow Hunters in Bolingbrook. The flyer appears later in this newsletter. Online pre-registration should be ready at our website www.illinoistargetarchery.org in the next few days. The ITAA Indoor State Championship will be hosted by Chicagoland JOAD and held at Auroraland Archers in Batavia on February 18, 2012. Details for this shoot should be ready by our next Newsletter. Our next organizational meeting will be held between the morning and afternoon lines of this shoot.

In the meantime, there are plenty of local shoots around. CLJ hosts the Don Branson Memorial Turkey Shoot on November 19th. The Chicago Park District Clubs hold a shoot every few weeks. Their schedule is already available at www.lincolnparkarchery.org

Thanks,

Tom Havel
